Re: MM Docket No. 96-16

Dear Mr. Caton:

On behalf of KNGN Radio, I am writing to express strong support for the comments submitted by National Religious Broadcasters ("NRB") in the above-referenced proceeding.

The reform of Commission EEO regulations advocated by NRB would:

- Conform the FCC's rules to the approach followed in the nation's basic employment discrimination law, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;

- Recognize the legitimate right of each religious broadcaster to develop and maintain a work force fully committed to its organizational mission (e.g., propagation of the Gospel); and

- Avoid constitutionally suspect government entanglement in the internal operations of religious stations.

Respectfully submitted,

Lowell Highby
KNGN General Manager

RE: MM Docket No. 96-16

Dear Mr. Caton,

I'm writing today on behalf of WFHL-TV to express my strong support for the comments submitted by the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB) in the above referenced proceeding.

The reform of Commission EEO regulations advocated by NRB would:

- Conform the FCC's rules to the approach followed in the nation's basic employment discrimination law, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;
- Recognize the legitimate right of each religious broadcaster to develop and maintain a work force fully committed to its organizational mission (e.g., propagation of the Gospel); and
- Avoid constitutionally suspect government entanglement in the internal operations of a religious station

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Mr. Caton,

Greetings from the land of the Golden Gate and KFX Radio.

I have taken time to explore the issue of MM Docket 96-16. I have also taken time to study the comments submitted to you by the National Religious Broadcasters relative to MM Docket 96-16.

I would strongly urge your support for the NRB position.

Sincerely,

Ron Walters

Re: MM Docket No. 96-16

Dear Mr. Caton:

On behalf of Cedar Ridge Children's Home and School, Inc., licensee of WCRH, I am writing to express strong support for the comments submitted by National Religious Broadcasters ("NRB" in the above-referenced proceeding.

The reform of Commission EEO regulations advocated by NRB would:

- Bring into conformity the FCC's rules to the approach followed in the nation's basic employment discrimination law, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;

- Recognize the legitimate right of each religious broadcaster to develop and maintain a work force fully committed to its organizational mission (e.g., propagation of the Gospel) and

- Avoid constitutionally suspect government entanglement in the internal operations of religious stations.

Respectfully submitted,

Ward Childerston
WCRH General Manager
